

'fortune favours the well-advised'

NFB Financial Services Group is a specialist financial advisory services company and has been providing advice to a high net worth individual and corporate client base for 25 years. We have developed an exceptional client-centric culture, with commitment to optimizing investment results within client-specific risk tolerances and unrivaled product innovation. Positioned as an independent - and therefore unbiased - financial services provider, NFB has been nominated three times as one of SA's Top 20 Unlisted Companies. An award that recognizes the delivery of world-class service, outstanding client communication and an excellent track record.
